VASANTHAM, residential special school in Mogappair, Chennai, has empowered over 1000s of neurodiverse individuals and their families over three and a half decades. Incepted in 1989 with six children, VASANTHAM has currently grown to embrace 150+ children and adults (on campus) and those receiving services remotely & as outreach in rural areas. Being committed to its motto 'Challenge the challenges', has helped VASANTHAM witness this growth over the years.

Beneficiaries: Neurodiverse individuals - intellectual disability, autism spectrum disorders, attention deficit hyperactive disorder, cerebral palsy, learning disability and multiple disability.

Services offered at VASANTHAM:

Special education	Communication therapy
Physiotherapy	Occupational therapy
Pre-vocational training	Vocational training
Behavioural Modification	Music & Dance therapy
Play therapy	Yoga

A few students also appear for mainstream public examinations.

Other activities: Indoor and outdoor recreation, skill based training such as gardening, weaving, etc., field trips, health camps, awareness programmes, celebrations, interschool and inter-district educational and sports competitions with other NGOs and mainstream school students.

Products made from vocational training: Jute bags, pouches, folders, name tags, purses, handwoven stoles, table runners, paper cups, floor mats, paper bags, files, candles, greeting cards, diyas, decorative things, paintings, wall hanging, chain, earring, bracelet, etc.

You can support people with special needs at VASANTHAM in more ways than one. Spending time with them on weekends, volunteering to teach a skill, sponsoring a meal, sponsoring a child's training, celebrating birthdays, buying products made at vocational training unit, providing instrumental or financial support, etc. are some means through which you can add more joy.
